PCCW Announces Board Changes

Hong Kong May 23, 2002 – The Board of Directors of PCCW announced today the departure of Executive Director David Prince and the appointment of group Chief Operating Officer Michael J. Butcher as an executive director of PCCW.

The resignation of Mr. Prince, who was also PCCW group chief financial officer, is effective May 31, 2002. The appointment of Mr. Butcher as executive director will take effect from June 1, 2002. He will also join PCCW's Executive Committee.

PCCW previously announced Mr. Prince's departure as group CFO, and his replacement by PCCW Executive Committee member Fred Ma.

In April, Mr. Butcher replaced departing Chief Operating Officer William Cheung, whose resignation from the PCCW Board of Directors became effective May 22, 2002.

The Company also announced the resignation from the Board of Directors of Peter To effective June 30, 2002.

Joining PCCW as a director effective June 1, 2002 is Sir David Ford. Sir David served as Chief Secretary of the Hong Kong Government from 1986 to 1993, and was the Hong Kong Commissioner in London until Hong Kong's return to China in June 1997.

PCCW wishes to thank Mr. Prince, Mr. Cheung and Mr. To for the significant contributions they made during their years of dedicated service.
